AGENCY CONTACT MEMORANDUM #2015-0501

To: Agency IT Leadership, Technical Contacts
From: James M. Fowler,
Chief Information Officer
Date: May 14, 2015
Subject: Nominations for annual NASCIO awards

A nonprofit agency that recognizes state government information technology achievements is seeking nominations for its 2015 awards program.

The National Association of State Chief Information Officers will present 11 awards at its annual conference Oct. 12 in Salt Lake City, Utah. The association honors innovative IT achievements that lead to better government and citizen engagement, as well as initiatives that exemplify best practices, support public policy goals, and provide solutions that lead to cost-effective services for citizens.

The Commonwealth Office of Technology will submit award nominations on behalf of agencies this year, but we welcome your input.

Please take a moment to review the award categories and contact Glenn Thomas, director of IT Governance at COT, with your entry suggestions no later than Thursday, May 28. He can be reached at (502) 564-6265 or Glenn.Thomas@ky.gov.
